A TEACHER'S PERSONAL WORKSPACE (TPW)¹

Universalis has created a secure individual workspace, accessible from any computer connected to the internet², that is available for every teacher to use. The TPW provides several functionalities:

- SAVING OF DOCUMENTS: all Universalis documents (texts, media/multimedia items) may be copied and saved by the teacher in their personal workspace; they can also add their own media items
- EDITING OF SAVED DOCUMENTS: the TPW includes a text, media, and slideshow editor that the teacher can use to adapt documents to their teaching and class
- CREATION OF ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS: publishing tools can be used to create an original document from scratch (questionnaire, article, chronology, etc.)
- DOCUMENT SHARING: the teacher can share all documents copied, created or edited in their workspace, either via email, by printing, or through projection in various display formats

INTENDED FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

The Universalis resources are an inexhaustible documentary source for planning lessons, teaching a class, making a presentation, doing research, etc.

- LEGALLY AUTHORIZED documents for educational use.
- TOP-QUALITY media items suitable for full-screen display (with integrated zoom).
- A TEACHER'S PERSONAL WORKSPACE for creating and circulating educational documents (see opposite).
